

ADJEI AGYEI-BAAH

Afrikus

1
slimy pond
a frog slides in
without a sound

2
the world
under one streetlight—
moon

3
double pleasure—
on my ice cream
two mating flies

4
sleep driving
the timely prompt
of a pothole

5
New Year's Day
the known rooster's voice
replaced by another

Adjei Agyei-Baah is the author of two haiku books, Afriku (Red Moon Press, 2016) and Ghana 21 Haiku (Mamba Africa Press, 2017), and winner of several international awards. He is the cofounder of Africa Haiku Network (AHN) and doubles as well as the coeditor of Mamba Journal, Africa's first haiku journal, and champions "Afriku," the nativized version of Japanese haiku poetry in Africa.

JIMIN LEE

Fast Track Only, 2013
Photogravure, Spit bite, Pigment on Kozo, Chine collé, 28 x 18 in

COURTESY THE ARTIST